Monica Burnett brings more than ten years of human resources experience to her role as Human Resource Generalist/Consultant for HRValue Group.

Prior to joining HRValue Group, Burnett was Human Resources Manager for GPX, Inc., an international consumer electronics company; and she began her human resources career with The Williams Companies, a diversified energy company headquartered in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Burnett worked with several different lines of business for Williams, providing human resources business consulting and generalist support. She has successfully developed and implemented a wide array of human resources programs – including performance management, college recruiting, HR Scorecarding, and training – which she applies directly to her work for HRValue Group clients. Burnett also has extensive merger and acquisition experience.

Professional Organizations & Activities

Certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) by the Society for Human Resources Management, Burnett is a current member of the national SHRM organization, as well as the local HRMA St. Louis chapter. Additionally, she is a volunteer for Junior Achievement.

Education

Burnett is a graduate of the University of Tulsa with a bachelor's degree in Communication (cum laude) and a master's degree in business.

“Focusing on human resource compliance issues, we lead your credit union with effective implementation of affirmative action plans and policies and procedures.”
