

Profile

Marisa C. Hinnenkamp Executive Search Consultant

Marisa Hinnenkamp brings many years of nationally-recognized recruiting and candidate identification experience with her to her role as Executive Search Consultant for HRValue Group. At HRValue Group she will be responsible for candidate identification, recruitment, assessment, referencing, and negotiations.

Marisa has provided skilled consultative services to organizations regarding:

- > Candidate Identification
- > Executive Negotiations
- > Executive Compensation
- > Candidate Relations and Assessment
- > Executive Recruiting

Hinnenkamp came to HRValue Group from a top Minnesota executive search firm, where she worked as an Executive Recruiter. She previously served as a Consultant with Clark Consulting, working with Boards of Directors and senior management to audit and design base salary programs, short-and long-term incentive plans, performance appraisals, and total compensation programs designed to ensure that executive compensation programs were in compliance with laws governing not-for-profit organizations. Prior to her work at Clark Consulting, Hinnenkamp served as a Senior Associate with Tor Dahl & Associates as a co-presenter, project manager, interviewer, data analyst, seminar analyst, and work group facilitator.

Contact

Please call Marisa at our Minnesota office at 651.222.5120 or email her at mhinnenkamp@hrvaluegroup.com

Education

Hinnenkamp holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Kalamazoo College and completed her senior thesis at the prestigious Neuropsychiatric Institute at the UCLA Medical School. She also completed studies at the International Institute in Madrid, Spain.

“Through proactive recruitment and selection methods, we will find the slate of candidates for you who might not respond to ads or even be actively exploring a change.”

